STAT

Last fall we had several exchanges of telephone calls and letters regarding your request for reimbursement of expenses involved in movement of your furniture within the Washington, D. C. area on the occasion of your retirement. Unfortunately we had to deny your request on the basis of a legal opinion to the effect that there was no authority under which reimbursement could be made.

I am happy to inform you that, on the basis of a change in the Standardized Regulations which carried an effective date earlier than your move, but which was not issued until some time following your move, our Legal Counsel has ruled that such expenses may now be authorized. I have, therefore, authorized reimbursement to you in the amount of $352.88 covering the American Storage Co. invoice (excluding insurance) which you submitted earlier.

Enclosed you will find a Treasury check payable to your order in the amount of $352.88.

Sincerely,

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Finance

SUBJECT: [REDACTED]

25X1

1. In July 1969, [REDACTED] retired under the CIA Retirement System and requested authority to be reimbursed for moving expenses between two apartment buildings within the metropolitan area of Washington, D. C. I denied his request on the basis of OGC Opinion 69-1391 dated 25 July 1969 (copy attached at Tab "A") and the Executive Director-Comptroller denied his appeal on the same basis by letter dated 17 November 1969.

2. OGC 70-0928 dated 5 June 1970 (copy attached at Tab "B") concludes that retirement moves within a metropolitan city area may be authorized if Agency regulations are amended to provide such authority. The Travel Policy Committee has recommended such regulation change (Tab "C"), and Regulations Control Staff is now processing that change for publication.

3. I hereby authorize reimbursement of [REDACTED] retirement move expenses and request that you forward a Treasury check payable to [REDACTED] in the amount of $352.88 (the amount of the American Storage Co. invoice, excluding insurance) to my office for transmittal to [REDACTED]. This expense is chargeable to [REDACTED]

(3) Upon retirement while assigned abroad, or upon retirement while assigned within the continental United States by a participant in the CIA Retirement and Disability System, travel and transportation expenses from the last post of assignment to the place where the employee will reside in the United States, its possessions or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, including removal and transportation to such place in single lots from each storage point of effects which are in storage, commercial or private. Where the employee is moving from one residence to another in the same metropolitan area, authorization of such expenses is subject to his certification that the move is occasioned by his retirement. An employee who elects to reside elsewhere will be allowed expenses actually incurred, not to exceed the constructive cost of direct travel and transportation between his last post of assignment and his Permanent Place of Residence as defined in [redacted]. If he also has effects in storage, (commercial or private), which are shipped to the place where he will reside he will be allowed expenses actually incurred not to exceed the constructive cost of transporting these effects, in single lots from each storage point, between either the last post of assignment or the place where the effects are located and his Permanent Place of Residence, whichever is greater. In no case will the combined weight of shipments authorized under the above provisions exceed the appropriate weight limitation prescribed in [redacted]
